Carter D. Womack has a history of leadership success in the world of work, community service, government, and his passion, working on the development of young people both at the public school/pre college level and in colleges and universities. His record of success speaks for itself. He has a strong professional career having worked for some of the leading companies in their industry, such as: The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company, (Mgr. EEO/Diversity), Ryder Systems, Inc. (Dir. Employee Relations), Blockbuster, Inc (VP Human Resources - HR), THE BLACK COLLEGIAN Magazine (SR. VP Sales), Value City Department Stores (EVP HR), Viacom, Inc/Viacom Retail Stores (VP HR). He has been listed in Who's Who in Black Corporate America, Who's Who in the Mid West, and Listed In Ebony Magazine as one of the 100 Most Influential Blacks in America for 5 years.

Carter, as President and CEO of Leadership At Its Best, states, "I am on a mission to help individuals and organizations be successful because Leadership Development is a JOURNEY not just A ONE DAY TRIP." As a part of the mission, Carter and his leadership team will work with this generation of young people to make sure the next generations of adult leaders are better prepared to be the very best. He will focus on getting the message out that the diversity of our people is one of America's greatest assets. Carter states, "I want to help corporate organizations and individuals understand the real issues related to truly making diversity work both in the corporate world, and our communities at large."

Carter D. Womack is an outstanding leader, serious professional and dynamic speaker. If your company, organization, church or school, is looking for a high energy, top notch person to speak at your event, then you would want to engage Carter D. Womack.

Some of the topics Carter discusses are:

- Saving the Children, leaving not one behind.
- Leadership starts with you. In this case, it's all about you!
- Leadership development is a journey, not just a one-day trip
- Don't be afraid to be Black in corporate America
- Learning how to play the corporate violin
- Diversity in corporate America from the outside looking in
- When I wake up in the morning I am still African American. What must I do today?
- My hands, they tell the story of my people
- What does it mean to be young, gifted, and black with no idea of what to do?

Carter also talks about responsibility with excerpts from his soon to be published 2005 book, I Am Responsible for MY ... Read on...

These are just a few of many messages that Carter D. Womack can deliver to you and your organization. Whatever your organization is:

- Corporate Human Resources, Leadership Meetings/Conferences
- Corporate Management Meetings/Conferences & Seminars
- High School, Colleges & University Programs
- Diversity Seminars
- Major Fundraising Events
