Carter D. Womack, Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc.'s 27th and 29th past international president and current president and chief executive officer of Leadership At Its Best LLC, will be the keynote speaker at the 98th Alabama State Conference of Phi Beta Sigma. The conference will be held March 9-11, 2012, at the Hilton Garden Inn, 280 Colonial Drive, Oxford, AL 36203.

Mr. Womack served as Phi Beta Sigma's 27th president, from 1989 through 1993 and as their 29th president, from 1995 through 1997. He is the only president to hold two different numbers as an elected president. He was also elected national president of the National Pan-Hellenic Council, Inc., in 1993 and served through 1995.

An exceptional leader and dynamic speaker, Mr. Womack was elected to serve three terms as an Akron, Ohio, city councilman and has held executive positions with several Fortune 500 companies, such as VIACOM, Blockbuster and Retail Ventures, Inc. He was voted as one of the "100 Most Influential Blacks in America" by Ebony magazine and is listed in Who's Who in the Midwest and Who's Who in Black Corporate America. Still active with his alma mater, Alabama A & M University, he became a life member in their alumni association and was elected to the first Alabama A & M Hall of Fame for outstanding community service.

His company, Leadership at Its Best, was designed to identify future leaders in middle schools, high schools, colleges and universities and to develop these young people to be successful leaders in their schools, communities and the workplace. The company also delivers leadership development and diversity training to small and large businesses and nonprofit organizations throughout the country.
